Fellas,

I hope you all saw this email from earlier this afternoon. If ANYONE has any information about this, or knows anyone who might, please let me know asap. This could very quickly get very bad for the house if we do not get on top of it.

Pledges - we need to be much much more vigilant about door duty, especially on nights like last night where we had a big party and lots of people coming in and out of the house. I take responsibility for last night since I did not communicate our expectations to you, but in the future:

- If you are scheduled to be on door duty, do not leave your assigned spot in the chapter room unless you are being replaced by another pledge/brother.

- CHECK EVERYONE's ID

- Non-dartmouth students are never allowed in the house unless they have a brother/pledge who is personally responsible for them (i.e. a friend visiting from another school).

Thanks guys and I'll keep you all updated as this situation unfolds.
